We value you and sincerely appreciate your willingness to volunteer.

As a volunteer, you are providing a valuable service to our schools. You are also an important liaison between the school and the community when you share the great programs and events in our schools. You may have questions about your role and responsibilities as a volunteer. The purpose of this handbook is to provide you with resources and information to help answer the questions you may have.

ABOUT THIS HANDBOOK

The Randolph County School System's Volunteer Handbook has been prepared to provide information and guidance for volunteers. It is designed to include general information and brief descriptions of some of the board policies which apply to volunteers working in the Randolph County School System. This handbook is limited in size and scope to keep it as brief and concise as possible without impairing its usefulness. If you should have questions regarding the responsibilities or expectations for volunteers, please contact the principal. Volunteers in the Randolph County School System are required to abide by Board Policies which outline responsibilities for their specific roles in the school, interactions with students and staff members; drug, alcohol and tobacco free environments; confidentiality; use of technology; professional dress, etc. All Randolph County Schools Board Policies are accessible online on the Randolph County School System website. To review board policies, please refer to the complete Board Policy manual which is available on the Randolph County School System web site (www.randolph.k12.nc.us). To access Board Policies: Go to the Board of Education header on the navigation bar on the home page, and then click on the Board Policies link.

GUIDELINES

Sign-in Procedures: For security reasons, and in case of an emergency, every visitor to our schools must sign-in at the office and wear a visitor sticker. Please remember to sign-in and out every time you volunteer. We know it takes a few extra minutes to do this, but it is very important.

Confidentiality: Confidentiality is very important. Like teachers, volunteers are bound by a code of ethics to keep confidential matters within the school. As you work with the students and teachers, information of a private or confidential nature may become known to you. The abilities, problems, relationships and confidences of staff, students, and their parents should only be discussed with the school administration or the student's teacher. If a child confides in you about a personal problem for family matter, keep this confidential, too. If you feel the school should be aware of this information in order to help the student, discuss the matter in private with the teacher or administration.

Dress: Take your lead from the teachers and dress appropriately for the job you are doing. Keep in mind you are a model for the students; therefore we ask that your attire be neat and conservative. At a minimum, volunteer dress should follow the student dress code.

Cell Phones: The use of cell phones by volunteers at a school, in a classroom or on a field trip can be disruptive to instructional time or distract volunteers from their assigned tasks and responsibilities. To minimize distractions or disruptions during the instructional time and to promote student safety, volunteers should refrain from making or receiving phone calls and should the phone to silent or vibrate while volunteering.

Discipline: Students are usually well behaved while working with volunteers. If a child is misbehaving, you may try strategies to redirect them and get them back on task. Some of these strategies are:

- Use the student's name as part of your sentence. For example, "Steven, can you show me what to do next?"
- Ask the student to do something for you while you continue with the lesson or activity. For example, "Heather, can you hold these papers until I need them?"
- Let the students know you are looking for good workers that you can brag about to the teacher. Be sure to follow through and share the names of the students who are working hard with the teacher.
- Praise the students who are well-behaved.

Do not allow students to disrupt your group or the class. If these positive strategies do not work, tell the teacher. Never discipline a student. This is the teacher's responsibility.

Behavior and Standards: Do not initiate physical contact with students. If a student comes to you for a hug, you may respond in an appropriate manner. Do not ask for hugs or initiate hugs. Do not pat children on the head or shoulders. Do not tickle students.

Never touch a student in a discipline situation. Do not place your hand on a student's back or grab their arm to guide the student in the direction you would like them to move. Do not ask personal questions about the students or their families. Do not make jokes or comments about anyone's appearance, body, clothing, etc. Avoid sarcasm.

Do not investigate a discipline issue. Please refer all discipline to the teacher.

Supervision: Supervise the students carefully and conscientiously. If you are asked to work with a group of students immediately outside of the classroom, be sure you have all the materials you will need. Never leave your group unattended and always be aware of what they are doing.

BOARD OF EDUCATION POLICIES:

BLOODBORNE PATHOGENS – EXPOSURE CONTROL

The Randolph County School System has a Bloodborne Pathogen Policy and Exposure Control Plan designed to minimize employee exposure to potentially infectious blood and other bodily fluids. All employees must be aware of the provisions of the Plan. Some employees are classified as occupationally exposed because they can reasonably anticipate coming into contact with blood or bodily fluids in the normal performance of their assigned work duties. These employees will receive appropriate training, be offered the Hepatitis B vaccination free of charge, and use specific work precautions to minimize contact with potentially infectious bodily fluids.

Employees designated as occupationally exposed will be notified regarding training and HBV vaccinations. Copies of the Exposure Control Plan are available in each school.
(Reference: Board of Education Policy 7260)

CHILD ABUSE - REPORTS AND INVESTIGATIONS

The board of education supports all employees who make a report of child abuse or neglect in good faith.

Any school employee who knows or has cause to suspect child abuse or neglect is legally required to report the case of the child to the Randolph County director of social services. The report may be made orally, by telephone or in writing. The report shall include information as is known to the employee making it including the name and address of the juvenile; the name and address of the juvenile's parent, guardian or caretaker; the age of the juvenile; the names and ages of other juveniles in the home; the present whereabouts of the juvenile if not at the home address; the nature and extent of any injury or condition resulting from abuse or neglect; and other information which the employee making the report believes might be helpful in establishing the need for protective services or court intervention. If the report is made orally or by telephone, the employee making the report shall give his/her name, address and telephone number. The employee also will report the case immediately to the principal.

Any doubt about reporting a suspected situation will be resolved in favor of reporting and the report will be made immediately. A school employee is immune by statute from any civil and/or criminal liability when reporting in good faith suspected child abuse or neglect. Failure on the part of any school employee to report may result in disciplinary action being brought against the employee by the school district or civil action under the law.

The principal may establish a contact person in the school to act as a liaison with social services. All employees will cooperate fully with the department of social services in their investigation of child abuse, including permitting the child to be interviewed by social services on school campuses during school hours and providing confidential information, so long as the disclosure does not violate state or federal law.

The superintendent will develop any necessary procedures for reporting suspected child abuse and neglect and for cooperating with investigations by the department of social services. The board encourages staff development opportunities related to identifying and reporting child abuse and neglect.

The Board acknowledges that adult employees and visitors serve as role models for students. The Board recognizes that it has an obligation to promote positive role models in schools and promote a healthy learning and work environment, free from unwanted smoke and tobacco use for the students, employees, and visitors on the school campus. Finally, the board recognizes that it has the legal authority and obligation pursuant to G.S. 115C-407 Policy prohibiting Tobacco Use in School Buildings as well as the federal Pro-Children’s Act, Title X of Public Law 103-227 and the No Child Left Behind Act.

These volunteers contribute time, resources, and expertise and provide needed support to help ensure educational success for all children.

The board encourages schools to notify parents of their right to take four hours of unpaid leave from their jobs every year in order to volunteer in the schools as stated in G.S. 95-28.3.

The board encourages schools to develop and implement plans for utilizing school volunteers. The superintendent and his/her designees will be responsible for the implementation and supervision of school volunteer programs, including creating standards for screening of volunteers.

School volunteer programs must provide the following:

- adequate screening of volunteers based upon the amount of contact they will have with students;
- reasonable supervision of volunteers based at least in part upon the amount of contact they will have with students;
- adequate training of volunteers, including familiarizing volunteers with applicable laws, board policies, administrative procedures and school rules.

Volunteers may be subject to background, criminal record and reference checks to the same extent as school system employees. The Randolph County School System Administration may limit or terminate the activities of a volunteer in the best interest of the school.

The selection, recruitment and screening of volunteers will be done at the local school level. Volunteers will be assigned to an appropriate task by the principal or designee. The continuation of a volunteer's services shall be at the discretion of the Randolph County School System Administration.
