Répétant Winner — Randleman High School’s Matt Kemp was named The Courier-Tribune Player of the Year.

Kemp named Player of Year

There is never a “sure thing” in the sport of baseball, but Randleman High School’s Matt Kemp may be as close to that as anyone in a long while. The junior was dominant on the mound and he had a very punishing season at the plate in guiding the Tigers to the NCISAA state 2-A championship series this past season. He was 12-2 as a pitcher recording a 1.78 ERA. He fanned 108 in 92 innings of work. Offensively, he hit .388 with five home runs and 37 RBIs for the Tigers.

For his efforts, Kemp has repeated as The Courier-Tribune Player of the Year. The Courier-Tribune Coach of the Year Award will be shared for the second straight year by RHS Jake Smith and Providence Grove High School’s Jerry Kidd.
