

Congratulations to Seagrove Elementary School for winning the Randolph County School System's 2019 Elementary Battle of the Books competition.

Here are the top three finishers in the Elementary School competition:

First Place: Seagrove Elementary School - 59 points

Second Place Tie: Grays Chapel Elementary School and Ramseur Elementary School - 56 points

Third Place: New Market Elementary School - 49 points

Seagrove will represent RCSS in the regional competition on May 9, 2019.

Thank you to all of the teams for their hard work in preparation for the competition. Thank you, also, to the many volunteers who assisted in putting the competitions together and working the events.

Seagrove Elementary School

Grays Chapel Elementary School

Ramseur Elementary School

New Market Elementary School