Book Title:	Author:	The page I started reading at: _____
		The page I finished reading at: _____
		Number of minutes I read: _____

Response Choices: Each night, after you read, choose one of the following prompts to respond to below. You may not respond to the same prompt more than once a week and you must write at least 5 sentences.

- 1.) Reading Signposts
- 2.) Who is the main character? Describe that character using 3 strong adjectives and explain why.
- 3.) What is the conflict in the story? If you've read about the solution, what was it? If you haven't read about the solution, how do you think the problem will be solved?
- 4.) Summarize what you read today. What were the main events? Did you learn anything new about your characters?
- 5.) What do you predict will happen next in your book and why?
- 6.) Give an example of literary devices in the section you read today. (flashback, foreshadowing, author's purpose, point of view, figurative language). Tell why it was important to the book (include the page number).
- 7.) List 5 words from your reading that you had to look up or that were new to you in the pages that you read. Write their definitions.
