FIRST ANNUAL KIRK TUCK BENEFIT GOLF TOURNAMENT

Kirk Tuck, a former walk-on to the UAB football team, who went on to earn a scholarship, and to start at center for three years, is involved in a personal struggle with Acute Myelogenous Leukemia. Proceeds from this golf tournament will be used to offset expenses incurred during Kirk's illness. In addition, part of the proceeds will go toward the establishment of the Kirk Tuck Athletic Award, given to a walk-on football player each year at UAB.

WHERE: Highland Park Golf Club 3300 Highland Ave. Birmingham, AL

WHEN: Saturday August 5, 2006 7:00 a.m. Check-in with complementary range balls
