

Seaside School District 10

Code: KG
Adopted: 7/26/07

Community Use of District Facilities

The Board welcomes community use of school facilities when such use does not conflict with the regular school program. The facilities of the District are available for community use for both public and private purposes under conditions prescribed or permitted by law and in accordance with the adopted policies of the Board.

Rental rates for school facilities are approved by the Board.

Regulations governing community use of facilities will be established by the superintendent.
