SPOTSWOOD HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT SELECTED BY NEW JERSEY FOOTBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION TO ITS 2014/2015 SUPER 100 TEAM

SPOTSWOOD, NJ – Spotswood High School senior, Chase Fee, has been selected by the New Jersey Football Coaches Association to its 2014/2015 Super 100 team. Chase was honored at the NJFCA's annual super 100 banquet at the Pines Manor in Edison on March 22.

This is just the latest accomplishment in Chase's athletic and academic career. He has been selected to the 2013 All Greater Middlesex Conference Coaches Team, the 2013 All Blue Division Team, the 2014 All Greater Middlesex Conference Coaches Team, the 2014 All Blue Division Team, the 2014 Home News Tribune All Area 1st Team, and the Star Ledger All Group 2 Second Team.

Chase helped the Spotswood Football team win the GMC Blue Division title for the 1st time in 14 seasons. He also helped Spotswood earn the 9th ranked team in the county from the Star Ledger, and the 10th ranked team in the county from the Home News Tribune. Both of these accomplishments represent the 1st time in over ten years that Spotswood Football finished ranked in the county.

Chase is also a national honor society member and captain of the 2015 baseball team. Chase has chosen to attend Gettysburg College in the fall, where he will play football.
