MEMORIAL MIDDLE SCHOOL CHORUS STUDENTS SELECTED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE CENTRAL JERSEY MUSIC EDUCATORS ASSOCIATION (CJMEA) INTERMEDIATE CHORUS

SPOTSWOOD, NJ - Memorial Middle School is proud to announce that two of our chorus students, April Gorman and Pamela Halbert, have been selected to participate in the Central Jersey Music Educators Association (CJMEA) Intermediate Chorus. Each year, the CJMEA sponsors this chorus in an effort to unite some of the best middle school singers in our area. Interested singers must prepare the given audition material and then sing for a panel of judges. April, a seventh grader, will be representing Memorial School as a member of the alto section. Pamela, an eighth grader, will be singing in the soprano 2 section. These two students spent many hours working both with their music teacher, Mrs. Christina Restine, and at home on their own to be able to successfully audition and be selected for this ensemble. The concert will be held on March 15, 2015 at 3:00pm at Monroe Township High School. Congratulations to these two young musicians on their accomplishment!
