MEMORIAL MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS AUDITION INTO THE CENTRAL JERSEY MUSIC EDUCATORS ASSOCIATION INTERMEDIATE MIXED CHORUS

SPOTSWOOD, NJ - Memorial Middle School is proud to announce that two of their chorus students, Sheliza Dollete and Emilia Savarese, successfully auditioned into the Central Jersey Music Educators Association (CJMEA) Intermediate Mixed Chorus. Each year, CJMEA sponsors this chorus to join together some of the best middle school singers in the area. Interested singers must prepare the given audition material and then sing for a panel of judges. Sheliza, an eighth grader, and Emilia, a seventh grader, were both placed into the alto section of the Mixed Chorus. These two students dedicated their free time to prepare after school with their music teacher, Mrs. Christina Restine, and at home on their own to be chosen for this ensemble. After attending a series of weekend rehearsals, the experience will culminate with a concert on March 13, 2016. Congratulations to these two young musicians on their accomplishment!
