

Dan Silvia Appointed as Spotswood Director of Special Services

The Spotswood Board of Education at its meeting of May 5, 2009 appointed Dan Silvia as Director of Special Services replacing current Director Richard Flamini who retires June 30, 2009.

Mr. Silvia has been with the Spotswood Schools for seven years, serving as teacher of Special Education for five years and most recently for the past two years as the High School Assistant Principal. Commenting on Mr. Silvia, Superintendent of Schools Dr. John Krewer stated, "Dan will provide strong visionary leadership to our Special Services programs. He has a breadth of experience and working knowledge of our various programs. Importantly, he has forged a solid bond with not only students in our Special Education programs but also with parents and the wider Spotswood community. We are pleased to have someone with Mr. Silvia's passion and commitment assuming leadership at this important time."

Dan and his wife Vanessa reside in Spotswood with sons Daniel Joseph and Andrew Michael.
