

Read In Our Defense by Caroline Kennedy and Ellen Alderman

Author's Note and Historical Note

1. Write a thesis that addresses the purpose of writing the book was.

For each chapter summarize the issues of each legal case including the identities of the following topics for each.

First Amendment

Freedom of Speech → Brandenburg Standard & the Marketplace of Ideas

Freedom of the Press → Prior Restraint

Freedom of Religion → Free Exercise Clause, Establishment Clause & Wisconsin v. Yoder

Freedom of Assembly → FBI

Second Amendment

The Right to Keep and Bear Arms → Individual Right Interpretation & Collective Right Interpretation

Third Amendment

Quartering Troops → Quartering Act

Fourth Amendment

Unreasonable Search and Seizure → Writs of Assistance & James Otis, Jr.

Fifth Amendment

Right to a Grand Jury Indictment → Oppressive Prosecution

Double Jeopardy → Trono v. US

Rights Against Self-Incrimination → Accusatory v. Inquisitorial System

Due Process of Law → Procedural Safeguards

“Takings” → Eminent Domain

Sixth Amendment

Right to an Impartial Jury → Taylor v. Louisiana & Voir Dire

Right to Confront → Confrontation Clause & Cross Examination

Right to Compulsory Process → Branzburg v. Hayes & In camera inspection

Right to Counsel → Adversary System & Gideon v. Wainwright

Seventh Amendment

Right to a Civil Jury → Complexity Exception

Eighth Amendment

Cruel and Unusual Punishment → Felony Murder

Ninth Amendment

Rights Retained by the People → Griswold v. Connecticut & Right to Privacy

Tenth Amendment

Powers Reserved to the States → Hammer v. Dagenhart