Parish Vision Statement:

To be a spiritual Catholic Family focused on prayer as well as service to the Gospel through a Sacramental life. We envision our Parish as a community of stewards dedicated to building up the Body of Christ through active ministry while living the example of simplicity, humility, confidence and love of our Patroness, St. Therese of Lisieux.

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. -Isaiah 60:1

CATECHESIS Q & A: DEEPENING OUR KNOWLEDGE

“What Do We Know About the Magi?”

The word “epiphany” comes from the Greek word, “epiphainen,” a verb that means “to shine upon,” “to manifest,” or “to make known.” Thus, the feast of the Epiphany celebrates the many ways that Christ has made Himself known to the world, mainly the three events that manifested His mission and divinity: the visit of the Magi (Matthew 2:1-12), the baptism of Jesus (Mark 1:9-11), and the miracle at Cana (John 2:1-11).

According to Matthew (Matthew 2:1-12), the only one of the four Gospels to mention the Magi, they came “from the east” to worship the “king of the Jews,” offering gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh to the Holy Child. Although the account does not mention the number of Magi, the three gifts has led to the widespread assumption that there were three men. Unfortunately, nothing is known with certainty about the identities of the Wise Men from the East. It is surmised that they were gifted astronomers and astrologers--probably Medes from the clan of Magus, from ancient Babylon (modern Iraq). Scripture tells us that the Magi made their presence known to King Herod before the visit and that they were warned in a dream to return to their own country by a different route to avoid Herod after they saw Jesus. Their identification as kings is probably linked to Psalms 72:11, “May all kings fall down before Him”.

Although the New Testament does not give any names to the Magi, by the 8th Century they were identified as Balthasar, Gaspar, and Melchior, and were all regarded as saints. Tradition tells us that Balthasar is often represented as a king or a scholar from Babylonia; Melchior as a king or scholar from Persia, and Gaspar as a king or scholar from India. These names apparently derive from a Greek manuscript probably composed in Alexandria around 500 translated into Latin with the title Excerpta Latina Barbari. Another Greek document from the 8th century, translated into Latin with the title Collectanea et Flores, continues the tradition of three kings and, along with the above-cited names, gives additional details.

The Bible specifies no interval between Jesus' birth and the magi's visit; however, the closeness of the traditional dates of December 25 and January 6 encourage the popular assumption that the visit took place the same winter as the birth, but later traditions varied, with the visit taken as occurring up to two winters later. This maximum interval explained Herod's command in Matthew 2:16-18 that the massacre of the innocents should include boys up to two years old.

If you were to stroll around Prague or Frankfurt or Budapest or Kraków over the next few weeks, you might see curious graffiti scratched in chalk over some doorways: “20 G M B 16.” The families dwelling behind those doors have celebrated the Epiphany door blessing. They have gathered before the feast-day meal, probably after Mass, and the head of the family has traced the sign of the cross on the piece of chalk. Standing on a ladder, the leader writes the numbers for the new year, and the letters C M B for Christus Mansionem Benedicat, Latin for “May Christ bless this house.” The letters also point to the names that tradition has assigned to the mysterious magi, Caspar (an alternate name for Gaspar), Melchior, and Balthasar.

The blessing speaks of journeys ended and journeys begun at the doorway, and prays that all journeys be as satisfying as was the magi's. It prays that the house beyond the door has the quality of love and peace that the magi marveled at when they at last arrived in Bethlehem. In some countries where the Soviet Union tried to impose a harsh atheism, the vigor of this household custom survived all efforts to erase Christian customs. In the years of struggle, the chalked blessings were a pervasive sign of defiance, and now in the light of new freedoms, they are a sign of the resilience of our tradition and the fulfillment of the magi's quest for meaning and peace.

Change your life! Come to this three-day seminar with Fr. Ssemakula on January 29, 30, and 31 (Friday - Sunday), at the St. Joseph Center, 507 North Granada, Alhambra. What is "The Healing of Families" Seminar?
In his book, "The Healing of Families: How to Pray Effectively for Those Stubborn Personal and Familial Problems," Fr. Yozefu-B. Ssemakula presents a simple, yet powerful, prayer method for freeing you and your family from things you have prayed about without results, including health issues. Explaining how we are our families and our families are us, he shows how what we usually think of as just our own personal problems in life are actually our family's problems, only expressed in one or more members of the family. And, therefore, as long as we pray only for individuals of the family, our prayer is inadequate and ineffective. Fr. Joseph will show how God arranged our human life on our family system, as both a physical and a spiritual reality.

THE THREE KINGS (From the poem by H.W. Longfellow)

Three Kings came riding from far away,
 Melchior and Gaspar and Balthasar;
 Three Wise Men out of the East were they,
 And they travelled by night and they slept by day,
 For their guide was a beautiful, wonderful star.
 And the Magi rode through the gate and the guard,
 Through the silent street, till their horses turned
 And neighed as they entered the great inn-yard;
 But the windows were closed, the doors were barred,
 And only a light in the stable burned.

And cradled there in the scented hay,
 In the air made sweet by the breath of kine,
 The little Child in the manger lay,
 The Child, that would be king one day
 Of a kingdom, not human, but divine.

His mother, Mary of Nazareth,
 Sat watching beside His place of rest,
 Watching the even flow of His breath,
 For the joy of life and the terror of death
 Were mingled together in her breast.

They laid their offerings at His feet:
 The gold was their tribute to a King,
 The frankincense, with its odor sweet,
 Was for the Priest, the Paraclete,
 The myrrh for His body's burying.

Be one with Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration

"Where is the new-born King of the Jews? We have seen His star in the East and have come to adore Him." (Matt. 2:2)

The magi had to travel many miles to see Jesus; but now there is no need of traveling far or of making many inquiries to find Him. He is, as we know by faith, in our churches, not far from our homes! The Magi could find Him in one place only; we can find Him in every part of the world, wherever the Blessed Sacrament is kept.

Do we not then have even more reason to rejoice than those who lived at the time of our Savior Himself? --Fr. Michael Muller, C.S.S.R.
