FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

January 30, 2011

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.” —Matthew 5:3

G O D ' S W A Y S

If we itemized the top ten things that bring us happiness, what items might show up on the list? A hefty bank account? A Caribbean cruise or an African safari? A shopping mall marathon? Season tickets for the hometown team? A new car? If we already have some of these things, most likely we know they don't bring us true happiness. Fact is, they probably bring us more aggravation—items to return or repair, one more object for people to argue over. Today's Scriptures point us toward the things that bring us true joy. The words of all three passages conflict with our society's conviction that fortune, fame, and power are the sought-after treasures of life. God's ways are not the ways of our popular culture, after all, and today's readings help point us in the right direction.

Blessed are the peacemakers

FEAST OF FAITH (“I Confess”): One form of the penitential rite at the beginning of Mass is the traditional Confiteor, or “I Confess,” a prayer that was formerly prayed by the priest alone at the foot of the altar, but which is now prayed by the entire assembly. The Confiteor is at once personal (“I confess”) and communal (prayed aloud, together). We recognize that sin does not just separate us from God; sin comes between us and others, isolating us. We acknowledge that sin has many dimensions, individual and communal: sins of thought, sins of speech, sins of action, sins of omission. Sin is not something that happens to us; sin is something we do. In the Confiteor, we take responsibility for our own actions. The repeated insistence on our “fault,” with the ritual gesture of striking the breast, an ancient sign of penitence, is not meant to lower our self-esteem. Rather, it acknowledges our human instinct to transfer the blame whenever we can (“The devil made me do it!”). This prayer stops us short. We take responsibility for ourselves, our actions, our failure to act. Then we cry out to God in those ancient words, Kyrie, Eleison—Lord, have mercy. For the sinner who repents, there is mercy. This truth is at the heart of our faith, and it is where the Mass, our feast of faith, begins.

A donation of $40 is requested for each dedication bouquet (this is the actual cost of the flowers). In order to schedule a memorial or a dedication, please contact Giovanna Setiady at 281-9049.

PARISH MINISTRIES / NEWS:

PERPETUAL ADORATION

"At the time of Holy Communion I sometimes picture my soul as a little child of three or four years, who at play has got her hair tossed and her clothes soiled. These misfortunes have befallen me in battling with souls. But very soon the Blessed Virgin hastens to my aid: quickly, she takes off my dirty little pinafore, smooths my hair and adorns it with a pretty ribbon or simply with a little flower...

and this suffices to render me pleasing and enables me to sit before the Blessed Sacrament without blushing."
--St. Therese of Lisieux, Counsels and Reminiscences

SIGN UP! The Adoration Chapel is open day and night to adore Jesus in the exposed Blessed Sacrament. To sign up, call Carlos or Carla Johnson at 289-0388.
