THE FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

St. Therese of Lisieux
with the Holy Family

Today is the Feast of the Holy Family. It is normally celebrated on the first Sunday after Christmas; however, if Christmas and New Years both fall on Sundays, it is celebrated on December 30. Although there are major feast days dedicated to each member of the Holy Family—Jesus, Mary, and Joseph—the Feast of the Holy Family commemorates their life together. Because of the flight of the Holy Family into Egypt, a feast for the Holy Family has been observed by the Copts from early times. In Western Christianity, however, veneration for the Holy Family as a group, rather than as individuals, did not arise until the 17th century. Devotion to the Holy Family came to be known throughout Canada, thanks to the efforts of Barbara d’Ailleboust—who came to Canada with her husband to instruct Indians—and Jesuit Father Chaumonot, who founded the Confraternity of the Holy Family. Then-Msgr. Francois de Laval, who was later appointed the first bishop of New France, invited them to Quebec, where the Confraternity was managed and devotion was spread throughout Canada. The purpose was to preserve good morals.

In 1893, Pope Leo XIII expressed his approval of a Feast of the Holy Family as an efficacious means for bringing home to the Christian people the example of the Holy Family and stemming, in some measure, the evils of modern society. These motives led Pope Benedict XV to insert the Feast into the Universal Calendar in 1921. Originally celebrated on the Sunday after Epiphany, the Feast of the Holy Family was moved to the Sunday after Christmas in 1969, bringing it within the Christmas season.

Scripture tells us practically nothing about the first years and the boyhood of the Child Jesus. All we know are the facts, presented by Matthew and Luke, of His birth, circumcision, and Presentation, the family’s sojourn in Egypt, their return to Nazareth, and the “Finding of the Child Jesus in the Temple” (commemorated as the Fifth Mystery of the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary). The details of this episode are recorded in Luke 2:41–52, telling us that Jesus, at the age of twelve, accompanied Mary, Joseph, and a large group of their relatives and friends to Jerusalem on pilgrimage, “according to the custom”—that is, for Passover. On the day of their return, Jesus “lingered” in the Temple, but Mary and Joseph thought that He was among their group. Mary and Joseph headed back home and, after a day of travel, realized Jesus was missing, so they returned to Jerusalem, finding Jesus three days later teaching the elders in the Temple. They were amazed at His learning, especially given His young age. When admonished by Mary, Jesus replied, “Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father’s house?”

In her liturgy the Church hurries over this period of Christ’s life with equal brevity. The general breakdown of the family, however, at the end of the past century and at the beginning of our own, prompted the popes, especially the far-sighted Leo XIII and Benedict XV, to promote the observance of this feast with the hope that it might instill into Christian families something of the faithful love and the devoted attachment that characterize the family of Nazareth. The primary purpose of the Church in instituting and promoting this feast is to present the Holy Family as the model and exemplar of all Christian families.

Prayer to the Holy Family

Jesus, Son of God and Son of Mary, bless our family. Graciously inspire in us the unity, peace, and mutual love that you found in your own family. Mary, Mother of Jesus and Our Mother, nourish our family with your faith and your love. Keep us close to your Son, Jesus, in all our sorrows and joys. Joseph, foster-father to Jesus, guardian and spouse of Mary, keep our family safe from harm. Help us in all times of discouragement or anxiety. Holy Family of Nazareth, make our family one with you. Help us to be instruments of peace. Grant that love, strengthened by grace, may prove mightier than all the weaknesses and trials through which our families sometimes pass. May we always have God at the center of our hearts and homes until we are all one family, happy and at peace in our true home with you. Amen.

BUS TO WEST COAST "WALK FOR LIFE"

Vox Vitae invites YOU to join them for the Walk for Life in San Francisco on January 25th!—less than a month from now! The Walk and its counterpart, the March for Life in Washington, DC, commemorate the anniversary of Roe vs. Wade, the Supreme Court decision that stripped legal protection from unborn children on January 22, 1973. Since then, more than 60 million babies have been aborted in the United States. The Walk for Life is not a party. Rather, over 60,000 people gather together to remember the dead and resolve anew to work to end abortion. We remember also the wounded mothers, fathers, and other family members of the babies.

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN to go to the 2020 Walk for Life (we'll have TWO buses!). Join us! You can register at VoxVitae.org at the Events page. Our tentative schedule on Saturday, January 25, is:

Please be a VOICE FOR LIFE! Register today!

Midnight - Check-in at St. Therese Church; 1:00 a.m.—Depart; 7:00 a.m.—Arrive in San Francisco; 7:30 a.m.—Continental breakfast; 9:30 a.m.—Mass at Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption; 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.—Info Faire (Lunch can be purchased; bring your own lunch money!); 12:30-1:30 p.m.—Speakers and rally; 1:30 p.m.—Walk for Life; 4:30 p.m.—Bus pick-up at Pier 1; 5:00 p.m.—Protest at UCSF, the nation's abortion training headquarters and where they harvest organs from late-term babies; 5:30 p.m.—Bus pick-up at UCSF; 6:00 p.m.—FREE BBQ dinner at Our Lady Star of the Sea; 7:30 p.m.—Bus pick-up at Our Lady Star of the Sea; 1:30 a.m.—Arrive back at St. Therese Church on January 26.

The anniversary of Roe vs. Wade is an especially important time to demand legal protection for unborn babies.

St. Thomas Becket (1118-1170), Feast: December 29

To anyone who imagines conflict between religion and politics to be a modern phenomenon, history witnesses otherwise. Martyred under Henry VIII in 1535, Thomas More declared, "I die the king's good servant, but God's first!" Thomas Becket could have said the same four centuries earlier. As Henry II's closest friend and trusted chancellor, Becket, the king presumed, could be counted on, if made archbishop, to deliver the church to royal control. But Becket experienced a profound conversion, confirmed by the ordination liturgy's rich symbolism of the bishop as Good Shepherd and the church as Bride of Christ. Renouncing secular responsibilities, distributing his wealth to the poor, Thomas became the church's uncompromising champion. Faced with this "new" Becket, the king's previous friendship turned into a ferocious, almost irrational hatred. As eight centuries later, Archbishop Romero would be martyred at the altar of Christ's sacrifice, Becket was slain before the altar of Canterbury Cathedral by royal agents, neither the first nor last good shepherd to lay down his life as the price of freedom for Christ's Church and justice for Christ's sheep.
