Parish Vision Statement:

To be a spiritual Catholic Family focused on prayer as well as service to the Gospel through a Sacramental life. We envision our Parish as a community of stewards dedicated to building up the Body of Christ through active ministry while living the example of simplicity, humility, confidence and love of our Patroness, St. Therese of Lisieux.

CATECHESIS Q & A: DEEPENING OUR KNOWLEDGE*How do Catholics Practice Lent? by Jimmy Akin

Part II of II (Continued from last week)

Q: Why are Sundays excluded from the reckoning of the forty days? Because Sunday is the day on which Christ arose, making it an inappropriate day to fast and mourn our sins. On Sunday we must celebrate Christ's Resurrection for our salvation. It is Friday on which we commemorate His death for our sins. The Sundays of the year are days of celebration, "mini Easters" and the Fridays of the year are days of penance.

Q: Why are the forty days called Lent? They are called Lent because that is the Old English word for spring, the season of the year during which they fall. This is something unique to English. In almost all other languages its name is a derivative of the Latin term Quadragesima, or "the forty days."

Q: Why is Lent forty days long? Because forty days is a traditional number of discipline, devotion, and preparation in the Bible. Thus Moses stayed on the Mountain of God forty days (Exodus 24:18 and 34:28), the spies were in the land for forty days (Numbers 13:25),

Elijah traveled forty days before he reached the cave where he had his vision (1 Kings 19:8), Nineveh was given forty days to repent (Jonah 3:4), and, most importantly, prior to undertaking His ministry, Jesus spent forty days in the wilderness praying and fasting (Matthew 4:2). Since Lent is a period of prayer, fasting & almsgiving, it is fitting for Christians to imitate their Lord with a forty-day period. Christ used a forty-day period of prayer and fasting to prepare for His ministry, which culminated in His death and resurrection; and thus it is fitting for Christians to imitate Him with a forty day period of prayer and fasting to prepare for the celebration of His ministry's climax, Good Friday (the day of the crucifixion) and Easter Sunday (the day of the resurrection). Thus the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: "For we have not a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sinning' [Heb 4:15]. By the solemn forty days of Lent the Church unites herself each year to the mystery of Jesus in the desert." (CCC 540).

Q: Are acts of repentance appropriate on other days during Lent? Yes. Thus the Code of Canon Law states: "All Fridays through the year and the time of Lent are penitential days throughout the universal Church" (CIC 1250).

Q: Why are acts of repentance appropriate at this time of year? Because it is the time leading up to the commemoration of Our Lord's death for our sins and the commemoration of His resurrection for our salvation. It is thus especially appropriate to mourn the sins for which He died. Humans have an innate psychological need to mourn tragedies, and our sins are tragedies of the greatest sort. It is thus appropriate to have set times of repentance. Lent is one of those set times.

Q: Aside from Ash Wednesday, which begins Lent, what are its principal events? There are a variety of saints' days which fall during Lent, and some of these change from year to year since the dates of Lent itself change based on when Easter falls. However, the Sundays during the Lenten season commemorate special events in the life of Our Lord, such as His Transfiguration and His Triumphal Entrance into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, which begins Holy Week. Holy week climaxes with Holy Thursday, on which Christ celebrated the first Mass; Good Friday, on which He was Crucified; and Holy Saturday—the last day of Lent—during which Our Lord lay in the Tomb before His Resurrection on Easter Sunday, the first day after Lent.

“Eucharist: Discovering the Mass in the Bible” (Facilitated by Ruben & Rhonda)

If you'd like to know more about what the Church teaches about the Holy Eucharist and the roots of the Mass in the Bible, you are invited to attend this series! It will deepen your knowledge of the Last Supper, Communion, and the Great Feast. Jesus said “This is my Body” and “This is my Blood.” Some say they're merely symbols of remembrance. Others, that they're really the Body and Blood of Christ, but can't explain how that's possible. The Eucharist is the center-point of the Mass—but why? The answers are here. Renowned teacher Dr. Brant Pitre guides us through Scripture, history, and Church teaching to illuminate the wonder and miracle of the Eucharist. With deep insight, Dr. Pitre gives a fresh perspective for understanding the mystery that is the Eucharist. Classes began February 9 and will continue to meet on Tuesday evenings in the Parish Library from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., on the following dates: February 23, March 8 and 22, April 5 and 19, and May 10 and 24. For more information, contact the class facilitators, Ruben Beltran at 284-0020 (235) OR Rhonda Storey at 284-0020 (225).

Www.StThereseChurchAlhambra.Org

Of course, everyone knows to go to a church's website to find out its mailing address or what time the Masses and confessions will be—but there is a lot more to see on our website, including:

- ✠ Our History (About Us);
- ✠ The life of our patroness, as well as the lives of her parents, Saints Louis and Zelig Martin, and of each of her four sisters (Our Patroness);
- ✠ Which priests will celebrate which Mass (Mass Celebrants);

BIBLE STUDY, FEATURING...

All are invited to join us for our next Bible Study, featuring the video series, "JAMES: PEARLS FOR WISE LIVING," an 11-part study with author Jeff Cavins. It will be held every Wednesday from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., in the Parish Meeting Room, beginning on March 9 and continuing through June 1. James is one of the most practical books of the Bible. Like the book of Proverbs, it is a book of wisdom, a collection of teachings on issues faced by ordinary Christians in everyday life. These teachings speak loudly to all those who feel torn between the competing demands of this world and their faith. This study offers "pearls for wise living" by applying the wisdom of James to the present day. For anyone who has struggled to live a truly Christian life, James offers a wealth of practical solutions for handling and even sanctifying everyday circumstances.

Through this study, you will find an anchor to hold you steady through the storms of life; learn how just a few small words can change your entire life—for better or for worse; see how God's wisdom helps us face suffering and temptation; learn the secret to finding joy in the midst of trials; and find value in suffering and reason to trust in God's providence over wealth or position or personal talent. For any questions, please contact Debbie Robles at 679-6370 OR debrobles@me.com

BAPTISM MINISTRY

Pope Francis—Quote about Children

“God has no difficulty in being understood by children and children have no trouble understanding God. It isn't by chance that in the Gospels, Jesus speaks beautiful and strong words about the ‘little ones.’ This term indicates all persons who depend on the help of others, particularly children. Children, are a treasure for the Church because they constantly remind us of the necessary condition for entering into the Kingdom of God: that we must not consider ourselves self-sufficient, but in need of help, of love, and of forgiveness.”

YOUTH CONFIRMATION

Classes are in session today, February 21, ONLY for C1 students only. Please pray for all our C2 students who are retreat in Big Bear.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION: Bishop O'Connell will be here at the 5:00 p.m. Mass at St. Therese on Sunday, May 22, to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation. For questions, contact Ruben Beltran at 284-0020 (2) or rubenconfirmation@yahoo.com.
