Second Sunday of Lent

February 24, 2013

The Lord is my light and my salvation;
whom should I fear? —Psalms 27:1

PROCESS FOR ELECTING A NEW POPE

A conclave begins no earlier than 15 and no later than 20 days after the pope's death or retirement. The Apostolic Constitution laid out these rules for electing a new pope:

- The maximum number of cardinals is 120; to vote, one must be under 80. A two-thirds-plus-one majority is required to elect a pope; Two ballots are held in the morning and two in the afternoon. If a new pope is not selected after 12 to 13 days, the cardinals may impose a majority vote.
- Onto each rectangular ballot, each cardinal writes the name of the person he wants to be pope and then folds it twice, holds it in the air, and carries it the altar, saying, "I call as my witness Christ the Lord who will be my judge, that my vote is given to the one who before God I think should be elected." The cardinal places the ballot on a plate that sits atop the ballot receptacle and drops it in.
- Three Scrutineers, selected by the cardinals, are charged with counting the ballots. If the ballots don't match the number of electors, they are burned and another vote is taken. The first Scrutineer takes a ballot, notes the name, and passes it to the next Scrutineer; The second Scrutineer notes the name and passes it to the third Scrutineer; The third Scrutineer reads aloud the name, pierces the ballot with a needle through the word Eligo, and slides the ballot onto a string of thread. Each elector notes the name that is read. Once all ballots are read, the Scrutineers write down the official count on a separate sheet of paper. The third Scrutineer ties the ends of the thread on which the ballots are placed in a knot to preserve the vote. The ballots are placed in a receptacle.
- After each vote, the ballots are burned, causing smoke to appear over the Vatican. If no pope has been chosen, a chemical is applied to the ballots in order to create black smoke. White smoke signals that a pope has been elected.
- The newly elected pope remains pope for the term of his life, or until he retires. His reign is referred to as a pontificate.

For more information, contact the coordinator (number above) or see the national website at www.thekingsmen.org.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY: Catherine Contreras, 213-435-3942 40 Days for Life is a focused ProLife effort that consists of 40 days of prayer and fasting, community outreach, and the holding of peaceful prayer vigils outside abortion (or Planned Parenthood) facilities. As of February 18, 47 lives have been saved during the current 40 Days for Life. Every life saved from abortion is due to two things: the grace of God and the faithfulness of His people. You can help make a life-saving impact by joining a local vigil! Call the office for the locations of the four centers in the area surrounding St. Therese Church.

Join us for the next Prayer Vigil on Friday, March 1, from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. at the Alhambra Planned Parenthood on Garfield. This center is distributing the RU486 pills and is "conveniently" situated near Alhambra High School. Chemical 4U486 abortions take the lives of unborn children and have a far higher rate of serious complications to women than even surgical abortions.

Jesus, open my eyes to your presence in the life of every child. Open my heart to joy in the birth of every child, births that reflect the joy of your own birth in Bethlehem. As you shared life in the womb of Mary, so now send your protection upon every child still in the womb, and grant to their mothers the strength and joy that comes from welcoming the gift of life. We pray through Christ our Lord, Amen.

PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

"The Blessed Sacrament is indeed the stimulus for us all to forsake all worldly ambitions. Without the constant presence of our Divine Master upon the altar in my poor chapels, I never could have persevered casting my lot with the lepers of Molokai; the foreseen consequence of which begins now to appear on my skin, and is felt throughout the body. Holy Communion being the daily bread of a priest, I feel myself happy, well pleased, and resigned in the rather exceptional circumstances in which it has pleased Divine Providence to put me." - Blessed Fr. Damien, Apostle of the Lepers

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN:

"DID YOU KNOW?" Charter for Protection of Children Marks 10 years: The Charter contains practical steps addressing allegations of sexual abuse, preventing future abuse, and helping victims heal. Over the past decade, more than 100,000 adults and children have undergone prevention sessions in parishes and schools. More than 5,000 VIRTUS® sessions have been conducted, making access to this important training easily available. Additionally, the archdiocese is one of the largest private organizations in California to fingerprint employees and volunteers (more than 100,000 to date) who work with our children.

L E N T E N T R A D I T I O N S

By now, many may have failed in their chosen Lenten discipline to some measure or another: the daily doughnut is simply too alluring, or a furtive puff on a cigarette irresistible. There is meaning even in the failure, though, a kind of reminder that we cannot save ourselves. Part of the power of Lent is that we do it together, and although individuals decide on different ways to keep it, it is fundamentally the same journey. We fall, we get up, we keep moving. The desire to "give something up" for Lent is an age-old impulse in the Christian heart. We get better at it over the years, and move more deeply into the meaning and message of acts of sacrifice; so there is no shame in stumbling, as long as we are not discouraged by the failure and give up. We are clearing space in our lives, after all, and some of the things we desire to give up are worth rooting out completely anyway.

What do we do with the space we have cleared out by our sacrifice? The Lenten question of giving up is balanced by the Easter question of our response to Christ's embrace of us in love:

"What are you taking on for Easter?"
