CATECHESIS Q & A: DEEPENING OUR KNOWLEDGE

DOES A PRIEST HAVE TO BE HOLY IN ORDER FOR A SACRAMENT TO BE EFFECTIVE?

By Ruben Beltran, Confirmation Coordinator and Apologist

No, he does not, because Christ is the minister of all the Sacraments. The Donatists, a schismatic group from the 3rd and 4th centuries, preached that Sacraments administered by an unworthy minister could not be valid. However, St. Augustine rebuked them, saying, "...as important as the minister might be, it is the Word of God which is present in the Sacrament, and this Word can be delivered by an unworthy minister."

When this Word of God is present sacramentally, divine power is operative even when it is not properly used. Christ is always the "Minister of the Sacraments," whether or not the human minister is living a holy life. The Sacraments are the activity of the Church, the Body of Christ, so ultimately it is Christ Himself working in and through the Church. Christ is the Minister who gives the Sacraments through the human minister, even if this human be unworthy. As an analogy, if someone goes to a doctor who is not practicing a healthy lifestyle, the patient can still receive quality treatment. The doctor's ability to treat his patients does not depend on whether or not the doctor is in the best of health.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states: "This is the meaning of the Church's affirmation that the Sacraments act 'ex opere operato' (literally: 'by the very fact of the action's being performed'), that is, by virtue of the saving work of Christ, accomplished once for all. It follows that 'the Sacrament is not wrought by the righteousness of either the celebrant or the recipient, but by the power of God.' From the moment that a sacrament is celebrated in accordance with the intention of the Church, the power of Christ and His Spirit act in and through it, independently of the personal holiness of the minister. Nevertheless, the fruits of the Sacraments also depend on the disposition of the one who receives them" (1128). (For further reading, see CCC 1550-1584).

Augustine says in relation to the Sacrament of Baptism, "Nor is the water 'profane and adulterous' over which the name of God is invoked, even though it be invoked by profane and adulterous persons, because neither the water itself, nor the name invoked, is adulterous. But the baptism of Christ, consecrated by the words of the Gospel, is necessarily holy—however polluted and unclean its ministers may be, because its inherent sanctity cannot be polluted, and the divine excellence abides in its Sacrament, whether to the salvation of those who use it aright, or to the destruction of those who use it wrong. Would you indeed maintain that, while the light of the sun or of a candle, diffused through unclean places, contracts no foulness in itself, yet the Baptism of Christ can be defiled by the sins of any man, whatsoever he may be? For if we turn our thoughts to the visible materials themselves, which are to us the medium of the sacraments, everyone must know that they admit of corruption. But if we think on that which they convey to us, who can fail to see that it is incorruptible, however much the men through whose ministry it is conveyed are either being rewarded or punished for the character of their lives?"

SCHEDULE FOR DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Today, Sunday, April 12, is Divine Mercy Sunday. To mark this feast, we will have a special celebration at St. Therese as follows:

WHAT IS DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY:

3:00 to 4:00 pm: Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with Holy Hour and Chaplet of Divine Mercy

3:00 to 5:00 pm: Confessions

4:45 pm: Benediction

5:00 pm: Holy Mass

Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

Beginning in February 1931, St. Faustina Kowalski, a Polish nun reported receiving visitations from Jesus. One of the things He asked her for was that a painting be made of the vision of His Merciful Heart and that a Feast of Divine Mercy be established on the first Sunday after Easter. According to St. Faustina's diary, Our Lord promised all those who would receive Him in Holy Communion and go to Confession on the Sunday after Easter "shall obtain the complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." She also related that Jesus told her, "I am offering people a vessel with which they are to keep coming for graces to the fountain of mercy. That vessel is this image with the signature: 'Jesus, I trust in You.' The two rays denote Blood and Water. The pale ray stands for the Water which makes souls righteous. The red ray stands for the Blood which is the life of souls. These two rays issued forth from the very depths of My tender mercy when My agonized Heart was opened by a lance on the cross." When Pope John Paul canonized her in 2000, he proclaimed that the Second Sunday of Easter would be known from then on as Divine Mercy Sunday, thereby widely promoting the devotions associated with Faustina's visions.

PLENARY INDULGENCE: Our Lord promised that all those would attend Mass and receive Holy Communion on Divine Mercy Sunday, as well as go to Confession and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father would obtain "complete forgiveness of their sins and punishment." Alternatively, the promise extends to those who, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g. Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!") and go to Confession and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father. In 2002, Pope John Paul extended the promise so that Confession can be made up to 20 days before or after Divine Mercy Sunday. Be sure to join us and encourage others to come—especially those who may wish to return to the practice of their faith!

THE PRESENTATION CHAPEL OF PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

“It took me a long time as a convert to realize the presence of Christ as Man in the Sacrament. He is the same Jesus Who walked on earth, Who slept in the boat as the tempest arose, Who hungered in the desert, Who prayed in the garden, Who conversed with the woman by the well, Who rested at the house of Martha and Mary. Jesus is there as Man. He is there, Flesh and Blood, Soul and Divinity. He is always with us. Is it any wonder that Catholics are exultant in this knowledge, that their Leader is with them? ‘I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world.’” --Ven. Dorothy Day
