Jesus entered a village where a woman, Martha, welcomed Him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord listening to Him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to Him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me." The Lord said to her in reply, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her."

(Luke 10:38-42)

Catechesis Q & A: Deepening Our Knowledge

WHAT ARE INDULGENCES? - From "A Catholic Response"

Indulgences rank among the most poorly understood blessings of the Catholic Church. According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints" (CCC 1471).

First, an indulgence is not the forgiveness of sins but only applies to the effects of past, already-forgiven sins. An indulgence is not a Sacrament but must rely on the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Forgiveness of sin and remission of punishment are different. Second, sin can have two consequences: eternal (everlasting) punishment or temporal (temporary) punishment. Very serious sin, i.e., mortal sin (1 John 5:16), "kills" our friendship with God and, without confession, deprives us of eternal life. This loss is eternal punishment. It is not punishment from a vengeful God but the consequence of rejecting God. Not all sin is mortal (1 John 5:17), but all sin, even venial sin (less serious sin), needs correction. This correction is temporal punishment. It is demanded by God to correct the bad effects of our sin. Spiritually, it is the cleansing of our soul from earthly attachments due to our sin. Ordinarily, temporal punishment is satisfied through personal penance; however, indulgences can remove the temporal punishment due to past forgiven sins, both mortal and venial.

Third, the sufferings of Christ and His saints can be used to satisfy the demands of temporal punishment due to our past sins. In the Bible there are examples of saints making amends for the sins of others. Moses in Exodus 32:32 offers his life to God as a sacrifice for the sins of his people. Job (Job 1:5) offers sacrifice to God for the sins of his children. Even in the New Testament, St. Paul writes to the Corinthians: "I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls" (2 Cor. 12:15) and to Timothy: "For I am already on the point of being sacrificed" (2 Tim. 4:6). St. Paul sees his martyr's death as a sacrifice and is willing to be spent for the souls of others.

Even though Christ's Sacrifice on the Cross is sufficient for our redemption, St. Paul also recognizes that his own suffering is important: "Now I rejoice in my suffering for your sake, and in my flesh I complete what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of His Body, that is, the Church (Col. 1:24). The sufferings of the saints can be included with Christ's suffering, not for our redemption, but that the grace of redemption can be applied to the souls of men. The sufferings of Christ and His saints are pooled together as a treasury which can be used to satisfy our temporal punishment.

Fourth, the Church, as the minister of redemption, has the authority to dispense and apply this treasury of satisfactions to our souls on earth. Christ gives the Church through the Apostles the authority to "bind and loose": "Truly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven (Matt 18:17-18). In this passage Christ gives the Church the authority to excommunicate unrepentant sinners. The judicial power of "binding and loosing" also gives the Church the authority to forgive sins (John 20:23) and remove temporal punishment for repentant sinners. St. Paul in 2 Cor. 2:5-11 appears to be granting an indulgence to a Corinthian man. The man had committed a serious sin, but St. Paul does not call him to repentance, implying that God has already forgiven his sin. Now this sin affected the Church in Corinth, and St. Paul called on her members to remove the punishment against him. St. Paul personally pardoned the man and invoked Christ's name in this remission of punishment. The early Church, as witnessed here, demanded severe public penance from a repentant sinner to satisfy his temporal punishment. Later, the Church—using her authority to "bind and loose"—began to reduce the penance for "good behavior."

This practice led to the formulation of indulgences.

Indulgences are now classified as Partial or Plenary. A Partial indulgence is only a partial remission, while a Plenary indulgence is full remission, i.e., it removes all temporal punishment for all past forgiven sins. An indulgence can be received by a Christian in the state of sanctifying grace who performs a prescribed good work. The person who performs the good work must have the intention of receiving the indulgence and faithfully fulfill all requirements set by the Church. A person cannot receive an indulgence for another living person, but indulgences can be applied to souls in Purgatory by intercession. An unforgiven venial sin or an attachment to sin can prevent the reception of a Plenary indulgence.

In summary, an indulgence is a "favor" from Christ granted through His Church. It is not the forgiveness of sin, but the remission of temporal punishment due to past sins already forgiven. Our punishment is satisfied by the treasury of satisfactions earned by Christ and His saints. The Church has the authority to dispense and apply this treasury to our souls while still on earth. Without indulgences, we must satisfy our own temporal punishment through personal penance while on earth or later in Purgatory.

Photos from Our Young Men's Discernment Retreat

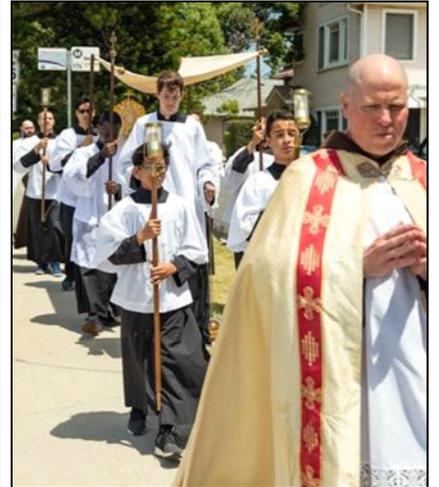

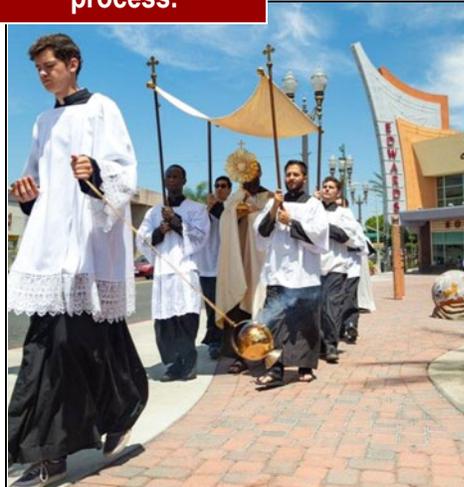

We were blessed to have TWELVE YOUNG MEN participate in our recent discernment retreat. The day included discerning the priesthood or brotherhood, Holy Mass, prayer with the Carmelite Friars, a Eucharistic Procession around Alhambra, a special visit with the Cloistered Nuns in their parlor, various talks, recreation, and a lunch at In N Out.

We would like to thank Daisy Thompson and Maria Alejandra and all their crew for helping us out during the day; the Carmelite Sisters for their generous assistance; and Elvia Hernandez for taking the photos during the procession.

Please keep these 12 young men in your prayers as they continue their discernment process.

Please make it clear on your check that you are donating towards the restrooms.

Scripture Question?

There's a lot of traveling, delivering, and visiting going on in our readings today. In Genesis, Abraham cares for the needs of three mysterious travelers. The Psalm responds, celebrating the kind of righteousness that Abraham practices. Then, in his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul describes his own ministry as almost like a delivery service: he, God's steward, brings the word of God to their community. Finally, Luke's Gospel shares the well-known story of Mary and Martha and the different ways they welcome Jesus into their home. Amid all this coming and going, we are invited to pay attention to the ways we tend to the needs of others. Each of us can ask, "How am I present to God and others in my life?"
