Parish Vision Statement:

To be a spiritual Catholic Family focused on prayer as well as service to the Gospel through a Sacramental life. We envision our Parish as a community of stewards dedicated to building up the Body of Christ through active ministry while living the example of simplicity, humility, confidence and love of our Patroness, St. Therese of Lisieux.

To Him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in Him will receive forgiveness of sins through His name. —Acts 10:43

Happy Resurrection Day!

...to all our Parishioners and Visitors! We rejoice because Jesus Christ is risen today! May your heart sing with the joy of the Risen Lord on this, His Resurrection Feast!

CATECHESIS Q & A: DEEPENING OUR KNOWLEDGE

By Jimmy Akin (Edited by Ruben Beltran, Confirmation Coordinator)

“Isn’t Easter a pagan rather than a Christian holiday, as shown by its very name and by the fact that its date is determined by the full moon after the Spring equinox?”

Anyone making this charge shows a total lack of comprehension of global Christianity. In fact, only a person speaking English or German could even possibly make this charge. First, let’s deal with the date. Easter is the first Sunday after the first full moon following March 21 (historically, the Spring equinox). The reason, however, has nothing to do with paganism. It has everything to do with Judaism and with Christ’s Resurrection.

Christ was resurrected on Sunday—the first day of the week (Matthew 28:1), thus, since the First Council of Nicaea in A.D. 325, all Christians have celebrated His Resurrection on Sunday. Prior to that, most celebrated it on Sunday, but some, known as Quartodecimians (“Fourteenth-ers”), celebrated it on the 14th day of the Jewish month of Nisan, when Passover occurred. At First Nicaea all Christians agreed to celebrate the Resurrection of Christ on the first Sunday after the 14th of Nisan, because that was the day Christ was Resurrected in the first century—the Sunday after Passover. Because first century Jews used a lunar calendar, every month was twenty-eight days long, beginning with the new moon until the full moon on the 14th of the month. Nisan, being the month in which the Spring equinox occurred, always had Passover—the 14th of Nisan—falling on the first full moon on or after the Spring equinox. Thus since Passover was always on or after the first full moon after the Spring equinox, and since the Resurrection was the first Sunday after Passover, Easter is always the first Sunday after the first full moon after March 21 (historically, the Spring equinox). There is nothing about a pagan lunar celebration in here. It has nothing to do with paganism, but everything to do with the Resurrection of Christ in its Jewish-Passover context.

Now let us deal with the name of Easter. The fact is that there are only two languages in which the name has any pagan associations whatsoever: English and German. This, of course, is a problem for King James “Only-ites,” since the term “Easter” appears in the King James Version in Acts 12:4 as a translation for the Jewish holiday of Passover. In English, of course, the word is “Easter” and in German, “Ostern.” These are related in name to a pagan spring festival, whose name, if you check a dictionary, was derived from the prehistoric West Germanic word akin to the Old English term “east,” which means, simply enough, “east,” the direction of the rising sun. It has nothing to do, contrary to what you will hear from some anti-Easter-ites, with the goddess Ishtar.

But in virtually every language, except English and German, the name of Easter is derived from the Jewish word “Pesach” or “Passover.” Thus, in Greek and in Latin, the term for Easter is Pascha. From there it passed into the Romance languages, and so in Spanish it is Pascua; in Italian, Pasqua; in French, Paques; and in Portuguese, Pascoa. It also passed into the non-Romance languages, such as Dutch, where it is Pasen; and Danish, where it is Paaske. Thus only in the highly Protestant countries of Germany (where the Reformation started) and England (where the intense persecution and martyrdom of Catholics was the harshest), does the term “Easter” have any pagan associations at all. So perhaps in these two Protestant countries paganism was not sufficiently stamped out to use the Judeo-Christian term for the celebration of Christ’s Resurrection that was used everywhere else in Europe.

our Lord!

Happy
EASTER

BIBLE STUDY EVERY WEDNESDAY NIGHT!

All are invited to join us for our current Bible Study, featuring the video series, “JAMES: PEARLS FOR WISE LIVING,” an 11-part study with author Jeff Cavins—held every Wednesday from now through June 1, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., in the Parish Meeting Room. There is a $20 fee per person, which includes a workbook.

Like the book of Proverbs, James is a book of wisdom, a collection of teachings on issues faced by ordinary Christians in everyday life. This study offers “pearls for wise living” by applying the wisdom of James to the present day. For anyone who has struggled to live a truly Christian life, James offers a wealth of practical solutions for handling and even sanctifying everyday circumstances. Through this study, you will find an anchor to hold you steady through the storms of life; learn how just a few small words can change your entire life; see how God’s wisdom helps us face suffering; learn the secret to finding joy in the midst of trials; and find value in suffering. For any questions, please contact Debbie Robles at 679-6370 OR debrobles@me.com.

EASTER MEDITATIONS

DRAWN INTO THE STORY— "We are witnesses!" The scripture readings for Easter Sunday concentrate on details reported by eyewitnesses. Listen carefully and you will be drawn into the stories yourself. Peter reports the good works Jesus did, His death on the cross, and His resurrection. The passage from John's Gospel has us running to the empty tomb with Peter and John--peering inside to see the cloths used to cover Jesus' body. Psalm 118 sums up our response: "It is wonderful in our eyes!" What resurrection details do we see in our lives today? How have we died to our old lives and been raised up again with Jesus? Let us pay attention to the new life around us. It is wonderful in our eyes!

"BIG SUNDAY"— Fifty years or so ago, it was popular to teach that every Sunday is a "Little Easter." Today, after several decades of intense liturgical reform, it is more proper to think of today as a "Big Sunday." On every Sunday of the year, the Church is obliged to assemble, keeping the day holy. In most places, we hardly attain the goal of gathering all who are in Christ by baptism. Look around today and see what a Big Sunday looks like! On this Easter day, we are at our very best. We remember who God is, and we remember who we are in God's eyes: beloved sons and daughters, reborn to eternal life in baptismal waters. We rekindle our candles and reclaim our baptismal promises. As a Big Sunday, today also reflects the character of festivity and leisure that should mark every Lord's Day. How different our lives would be if we took its values and traditions forward into all the Sundays of our lives.

“EUCHARIST: DISCOVERING THE MASS IN THE BIBLE”

(Facilitated by Ruben & Rhonda)

If you'd like to know more about what the Church teaches about the Holy Eucharist and the roots of the Mass in the Bible, you are invited to attend this series! It will deepen your knowledge of the Last Supper, Communion, and the Great Feast. Jesus said “This is my Body” and “This is my Blood.” Some say they're merely symbols of remembrance. Others, that they're really the Body and Blood of Christ, but can't explain how that's possible. The Eucharist is the center-point of the Mass—but why? The answers are here. Renowned teacher Dr. Brant Pitre guides us through Scripture, history, and Church teaching to illuminate the wonder and miracle of the Eucharist. With deep insight, Dr. Pitre gives a fresh perspective for understanding the mystery that is the Eucharist. Classes began February 9 and will continue to meet on Tuesday evenings in the Parish Library from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., on the following dates: March 22, April 5 and 19, and May 10 and 24. For more information, contact the class facilitators, Ruben Beltran at 284-0020 (235) OR Rhonda Storey at 284-0020 (225).

“I BELIEVE IN THE RESURRECTION OF THE BODY...”

The Bible tells us that when Jesus returns to earth, He will physically raise all those who have died, giving them back the same bodies they lost at death—but these resurrected bodies will not die and, for the righteous, they will be transformed into a glorified state, freed from suffering, and enabled to do many of the amazing things Jesus could do with His glorified body (cf. 1 Cor. 15:35–44, 1 John 3:2). The Resurrection of the Body is an essential Christian doctrine, as the apostle Paul declares: “If the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised. If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished” (1 Cor. 15:13–18). Paul tells us the Christian faith cannot exist without this doctrine, which has been infallibly defined by the Church and included in the three professions of faith—the Apostles' Creed, the Nicene Creed, and the Athanasian Creed—and has been infallibly taught by ecumenical councils.

The Fourth Lateran Council (1215), infallibly defined that at the second coming Jesus “will judge the living and the dead, to render to every person according to his works, both to the reprobate and to the elect. All of them will rise with their own bodies so as to receive according to their deserts, whether these be good or bad” [Rom. 2:6–11]. Most recently, the Catechism of the Catholic Church reiterated this long-defined teaching, stating, “We believe in the true resurrection of this flesh that we now possess (Council of Lyons II). We sow a corruptible body in the tomb, but He raises up an incorruptible body, a ‘spiritual body’” (cf. 1 Cor 15:42–44) (CCC 1017).
