CATECHESIS Q &amp; A: DEEPENING OUR KNOWLEDGE

"Why Do I Have To Go To Confession to a Priest?"

By Fr. William Saunders (Submitted by Rhonda Storey, DRE)

Some of my Protestant friends have asked why Catholics go to confession. What would you say? Jesus entered this world to forgive sins. Recall the words of our Lord: "God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him may not die but may have eternal life" (Jn 3:16). During His public ministry, Jesus preached about the forgiveness of sins: remember the parables of the Prodigal Son (Lk 15:11) or the Lost Sheep (Lk 15:1), and His teaching that "There will likewise be more joy in heaven over one repentant sinner than over 96 righteous people who have no need to repent" (Lk 15:7). Jesus Himself forgave sins; remember the story of the woman caught in adultery (Jn 8:1) or the woman who washed His feet with her tears (Lk 7:36). He also taught us to pray for forgiveness in the "Our Father". His mission of reconciliation would climax in His passion, death and resurrection: Jesus suffered, died and rose to free us from sin and death.

However, Jesus never trivialized sin or rationalized it. No, for Jesus, sin is sin, a violation of love against God and neighbor. However, in His Divine Mercy, Jesus called the sinner to realize the sin, to repent of it, and to be reconciled with God and neighbor.

Jesus wanted this ministry of reconciliation to continue. On the first Easter Sunday evening, Jesus appeared to His Apostles, "breathed on them," and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive men's sins, they are forgiven them; if you hold them bound, they are held bound" (Jn 20:21-23). Only twice in Sacred Scripture do we find God breathing into human beings. First, in the Genesis account of creation, God breathes the life of a soul into the man He has created (Gen 2:7). Now, Jesus the Son, breathes His life into His Apostles His priests, so that through them He will "breathe" life into the souls of contrite sinners. In this scene, Christ instituted the Sacrament of Penance and made His Apostles the ministers of it. At the Ascension, Jesus again charged His Apostles with this ministry: "Thus it is written that the Messiah must suffer and rise from the dead on the third day. In His name penance for the remission of sins is to be preached to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem. You are witnesses of this. (Lk 24:46) Clearly, Jesus came to forgive sins, He wanted that reconciliation to continue and He gave the Church a sacrament through which priests would continue to act as the ministers of this reconciliation.

Perhaps many Protestants do not see the need for confession to a priest or minister because most Protestant denominations do not have sacraments or at least the understanding of sacraments as efficacious signs through which the Lord gives us grace. (However, traditional or "high" Episcopalians have confessions; the Lutherans also have a ritual for reconciliation.) Nevertheless, we see this ministry of reconciliation lived out in the early Church. St. Paul wrote, "God has reconciled us to Himself through Christ and has given us the ministry of reconciliation" (2 Cor 5:18). The Didache (or Teachings of the Twelve Apostles), written about 80 AD, stated, "In the congregation you shall confess your transgressions" and "On the Lord's Day, come together and break bread...having confessed your transgressions, that your sacrifice may be pure." St. Cyprian wrote, concerning the reconciliation of Christians who had succumbed to offering pagan worship rather than face martyrdom, "Let each confess his sin while he is still in this world, while his confession can be received, while satisfaction and the forgiveness granted by the priests is acceptable to God." At this time of persecution, when local "parishes" were small, individuals publicly confessed their sins at the beginning of Mass (as mentioned in the Didache) and received absolution from the bishop or priest.

After the legalization of the Church by Constantine, the Church fathers continued to emphasize the importance of confession. St. Ambrose wrote, "It seemed impossible that sins should be forgiven through penance; Christ granted this power to the Apostles and from the Apostles it has been transmitted to the office of priests." Similarly, St. Athanasius asserted, "As the man whom the priest baptizes is enlightened by the grace of the Holy Ghost, so does he who in penance confesses his sins, receive through the priest forgiveness in virtue of the grace of Christ." By the mid-400s and the pontificate of Leo I, private confession under the seal of secrecy becomes the norm to safeguard the reputation of the penitent and to attract others to the sacrament. We go to confession because it is a sacrament given to us by Christ, and it has always been a Church practice.

This sacrament is so important in our sharing in the life of Christ, the Church has even mandated its practice. To prevent laxity, the Fourth Lateran Council in 1215 required that "the faithful who have reached the age of discretion should at least once a year faithfully confess all their sins to a priest. They should strive as far as possible to fulfill the penance imposed on them, and with reverence receive at least during Easter time the sacrament of the Eucharist." This rule is still a precept of the Church. The Council of Trent in 1551 in its Doctrine on the Sacrament of Penance asserted that since mortal sin "kills" the life of God in our souls,; these sins must be confessed and absolved through the Sacrament of Penance Trent also said "it is right and profitable" to confess venial sins.

We could end the answer here. However, regular confession is a healthy spiritual practice. Each sincere Catholic needs to periodically—every month or two—do a good examination of conscience. Each person should reflect on how well he has lived a "Christ-like life" by following the commandments and the teachings of the Church. Perhaps one's failures are not so much commissions as they are omissions. For all of these, we bring our soul to the Lord and receive forgiveness. The healing grace of the sacrament of penance washes away sin and give us the strength to avoid that sin again.

AZTEC FLOWER SONGS AND STORY: THE PROPHETICAL CASE FOR GUADALUPE

The story of Juan Diego's encounter with Our Lady of Guadalupe in 1531 has inspired and fascinated the faithful for hundreds of years. Her appearance is said to be one of the forces behind creating the Mexico that we know today: a blend of Spanish and native blood. What if the Guadalupe encounter had been prophesied thousands of years before 1531? What if Juan Diego's journey to the top of Tepeyac Hill to gather flowers in his cloak/tilma had been mirrored in Ancient Flower songs and stories known to millions across MesoAmerica prior to this historic event?

Through extensive research, Joseph Julián and Monique González have made startling discoveries that reveal unknown links between ancient Aztec poetry and the apparitions of Guadalupe. Joined by Ezekiel Stear (he has a Ph.D. in Colonial Spanish Language and Literature) and Chris Garcia (expert practitioner of MesoAmerican percussion), the group will show that there is much more to the Guadalupe story than anyone has ever imagined. Delving into ancient Indigenous American culture and beliefs, this new information makes the case of an epic salvific plan thousands of years in the making. If proven true, the implication is more than far-reaching—it changes history! Come out and celebrate Mary's month and Cinco de Mayo weekend by attending this exciting and ground-breaking three-night lecture series. Mark your calendars for the evenings of May 5, 6, and 7, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., in our Parish Hall. For more information, contact Monique at 991-0035 OR St. Therese Church at 282-2744.

MEN'S WEEKEND RETREAT AT EL CARMELO

The rate for the weekend retreat is $170 (shared room) or $198 (single room) which includes a private bath, meals, and peace and tranquility. The retreat also includes the Sacraments, Conferences, private consultations, etc. A non-refundable $50 deposit (check or money order made out to El Carmelo) is required to reserve your room. ## BIBLE STUDY EVERY WEDNESDAY NIGHT!

All are invited to join us for our current Bible Study, featuring the video series, "JAMES: PEARLS FOR WISE LIVING," an 11-part study with author Jeff Cavins—held every Wednesday through June 1, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., in the Parish Meeting Room. There is a $20 fee per person, which includes a workbook.

Like the book of Proverbs, James is a book of wisdom, a collection of teachings on issues faced by ordinary Christians in everyday life. This study offers "pearls for wise living" by applying the wisdom of James to the present day. For anyone who has struggled to live a truly Christian life, James offers a wealth of practical solutions for handling and even sanctifying everyday circumstances. Through this study, you will find an anchor to hold you steady through the storms of life; learn how just a few small words can change your entire life; see how God's wisdom helps us face suffering; learn the secret to finding joy in the midst of trials; and find value in suffering. For any questions, please contact Debbie Robles at 679-6370 OR debrobles@me.com.

“EUCHARIST: DISCOVERING THE MASS IN THE BIBLE”

(Facilitated by Ruben & Rhonda)

If you'd like to know more about what the Church teaches about the Holy Eucharist and the roots of the Mass in the Bible, you are invited to attend this series! It will deepen your knowledge of the Last Supper, Communion, and the Great Feast. Jesus said “This is my Body” and “This is my Blood.” Some say they're merely symbols of remembrance. Others, that they're really the Body and Blood of Christ, but can't explain how that's possible. The Eucharist is the center-point of the Mass—but why? The answers are here. Renowned teacher Dr. Brant Pitre guides us through Scripture, history, and Church teaching to illuminate the wonder and miracle of the Eucharist. Dr. Pitre gives a fresh perspective for understanding the mystery that is the Eucharist. Classes began February 9 and will continue to meet on Tuesdays in the Parish Library from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., on the following three dates: April 19, and May 10 and 24. For more information, contact the class facilitators, Ruben Beltran at 284-0020 (235) OR Rhonda Storey at 284-0020 (225).

LOW-GLUTEN COMMUNION HOSTS

If you are gluten-intolerant and it is necessary for you to receive a low-gluten host, we now have a special ciborium which is specifically made to hold the low-gluten hosts. Only the celebrating priest will have this available. To receive a low-gluten host, please follow these steps:

1. Fifteen minutes prior to the start of Mass, go into the sacristy (through the side near the Adoration Chapel) and inform either the sacristan or the priest that you need to receive a low-gluten host.
2. The Sacristan will then give you a lanyard to wear around your neck which will identify you when you come forward to the priest for Holy Communion.
3. After Mass, please return the lanyard to the sacristy.

RITE OF CONFIRMATION

Bishop O'Connell will be the celebrant at the 5:00 p.m. Mass at St. Therese on Sunday, May 22, in order to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation upon the RCIA adults and the youth of our community, which includes St. Therese Parish, St. Monica Academy, and our home-schoolers. If you wish to join our Confirmation and have not contacted Ruben at the Parish, please do so as soon as possible. We need a copy of each candidate's Baptism certificate and their sponsor's name. There will be a mandatory practice in the church for the candidates and their sponsors on Thursday, May 19, from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. Questions? Contact Ruben Beltran at 284-0020 (2) or rubenconfirmation@yahoo.com.

PRESENTATION ON THE SHROUD OF TURIN

With Jack Sacco and Matthew Marsden

DATE: Thursday, April 21
TIME: 6:30-8:30 p.m.
PLACE: Parish Hall

Is the Shroud of Turin the burial cloth of Christ? After 22 years of studying the Shroud, engineer and author Jack Sacco, and actor Matthew Marsden were granted an exclusive opportunity to examine and film the cloth in Turin, Italy. In this life-changing presentation, you will learn the scientific facts that prove this Shroud covered Christ, that what we know of the Passion is true, and a viable theory about the Resurrection and the true Presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist. FREE! Light refreshments will be served. For more information, contact Dr. Jennifer Sariego at JhSariego@gmail.com.

Be one with Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration

“Our Lord Jesus said to His disciples: ‘I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. No one can come to the Father except through Me. If you had recognized Me, you would have recognized My Father, too.’ Philip said to Him, ‘Lord, show us the Father and it is enough for us.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Have I been so long a time with you and you have not learned who I am? Philip, whoever sees Me sees My Father’ (Jn. 14, 6-9). Now, God is a spirit; therefore He can be seen only by means of the Spirit, for it is the Spirit that gives life, whereas the flesh is of no avail (Jn. 6, 64). But since the Son is like the Father, He, too, is seen by nobody otherwise than the Father is seen or otherwise than the Holy Spirit is seen. And so it was that those who saw our Lord Jesus Christ only in a human way and did not see nor believe that He was the true Son of God, as the Spirit and His Divine nature demand, they all stood condemned.

“And so now with all those who see the Blessed Sacrament, if they do not see and believe, as the Spirit and the Divine nature demand that it is truly the most holy Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, they stand condemned. For it is the Most High who bears witness to it. He says, “This is My Body, and the Blood of the New Testament” (Mk, 14, 22-24) and, “He who eats My Flesh and drinks My Blood, has life everlasting” (Jn. 6, 55).

--From the writings of St. Francis of Assisi
