CATECHESIS Q &amp; A: DEEPENING OUR KNOWLEDGE

“Did Mary Have Knowledge of Christ’s Divinity?”

By Ruben Beltran (Confirmation Coordinator)

“Mary, Did You Know?” is a popular song written by Mark Lowry that seems to question Mary’s knowledge of Christ’s divinity. Unfortunately, there have been many songs and movies that portray Mary—and sometimes even Christ Himself—as ignorant of what their roles are in God’s plan, as in the recent film, “The Young Messiah”. So, what did Mary know about Jesus, after being told by an angel that she would bear the Son of God? The Catholic Church has always taught that the Holy Spirit revealed to Mary who her Son was and all He would accomplish. Simeon’s prophecy perhaps informed her (if she didn’t know it already) of another aspect of her role as the Mother of God: that a sword would pierce her heart (Luke 2:25–35). There are countless verses in Scripture which show that Mary and Christ had full knowledge of what their roles were in God’s divine plan.

As Fr. William Most writes in his book, Mary in Our Life, “The traditional view holds that Mary knew that Christ was divine at the time of the Annunciation. This view is still held today by not only the best theologians, but also by the best Scriptural scholars. Would God ask her to consent in the name of the whole human race, and still withhold from her knowledge of that to which she was consenting? We are not permitted to give Holy Communion to children who do not know what they are receiving. Would Mary be given this far greater Communion in ignorance of what she was receiving? She did know that her Son was divine.”

Dave Armstrong continues this train of thought in his book, “The Catholic Mary” Quite Contrary to the Bible?”, saying, “After the Angel Gabriel told the Blessed Virgin in the Annunciation, Mary’s knowledge of Christ’s divinity from that time on is, therefore, an explicitly biblical teaching: ‘He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give to Him the throne of David ... and of His Kingdom there will be no end... the Child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God’ (Luke 1:32–35). Apart from the Messianic implications, it can be shown that the Messiah was divine, through cross-referencing in the Old Testament alone; for example, Isaiah 9:6–7, the fact that Jesus was called (by an archangel) Son of God was sufficient to establish His deity or divinity or Godhood. We know this from John 5:17–18 where Jesus called God the Father ‘My Father.’ The Jews then sought to kill Him for blasphemy, because, as St. John tells us, He ‘called God His own Father, making Himself equal with God’ (5:18). This is how ‘Son of God’ was understood in the Jewish mind. Roughly the same thing occurs again in the record of John 10:22–33 (and at that time He also added ‘I and the Father are One’—10:30).

“Neither Jesus nor Mary ‘grew in awareness’ or ‘gradually figured out’ Who He was. Such a teaching is theological liberalism and heterodoxy. Jesus knew all along what would happen (including His Resurrection; see, for example, Matthew 16:21–23; Mark 8:31–33; and Luke 9:21–22). The Gospels present one harmonious presentation of Jesus: the real Jesus of verifiable history. The four accounts complement each other. Furthermore, Mary’s knowledge was ‘confirmed’ when she visited Elizabeth, mother of John the Baptist, who called her the ‘Mother of my Lord’ (Luke 1:43). Right after that passage, we see Mary praising God in the famous Magnificat (Luke 1:46–55), because she was to be the Mother of the Son of God, the Messiah, God the Son, God Incarnate—which is precisely why she has been called ‘blessed’ (Luke 1:48). She quite obviously knew all this. It’s spelled out as clear as it could be. Even beyond that, we have the words of Simeon to Joseph and Mary when they presented Jesus in the Temple (Luke 2:22–35). One might point out in retort that Mary and Joseph were ‘amazed’ at these words (2:33), but that could just as easily refer to their amazement that Simeon had this knowledge and word from the Lord; rather than the content of his message. The prophetess Anna also appeared in the Temple at that time and spoke about Jesus’ Messianic mission (Luke 2:36–38). So not only did Mary and Joseph know full well Who Jesus was, so would all who heard (and believed) her words or Simeon’s.

“Moreover, there was the preaching of John the Baptist and the knowledge of the Magi (Matthew 2:1–6, 9–11). Their knowledge that Jesus was Messiah was precisely what caused Herod to try to kill all the infants, so as to kill the Messiah (Matthew 2:7–8, 16–18). Lastly, Joseph was told by ‘an angel of the Lord’ in a dream Who Jesus was, and that ‘He will save His people from their sins’ and that one of His names would be ‘Emmanuel,’ which means ‘God is with us’ (Matthew 1:18–25). Yet some would, nevertheless, have us believe that Mary—the very one whom an angel visited to announce the Virgin Birth and Incarnation—did not know what many others already knew either before or soon after Jesus’ birth. It makes little sense—even considered apart from all this biblical data—to think that Mary’s celebrated ‘yes’ or ‘fiat’ to the angel’s glorious announcement (Luke 1:38) was made without having the slightest (or only dim) idea of what she was consenting to.”

In response to the question, “Mary, did you know?,” yes, yes she did know. So, please, stop asking!

AZTEC FLOWER SONGS AND STORY: The Prophetical Case for Guadalupe

The story of Juan Diego's encounter with Our Lady of Guadalupe in 1531 has inspired and fascinated the faithful for hundreds of years. Her appearance is said to be one of the forces behind creating the Mexico that we know today: a blend of Spanish and native blood. What if the Guadalupe encounter had been prophesied thousands of years before 1531? What if Juan Diego's journey to the top of Tepeyac Hill to gather flowers in his cloak/tilma had been mirrored in Ancient Flower songs and stories known to millions across Meso America prior to this historic event?

Through extensive research, Joseph Julián and Monique González have made startling discoveries that reveal unknown links between ancient Aztec poetry and the apparitions of Guadalupe. Joined by Ezekiel Stear (he has a Ph.D. in Colonial Spanish Language and Literature) and Chris Garcia (expert practitioner of Meso American percussion), the group will show that there is much more to the Guadalupe story than anyone has ever imagined. Delving into ancient Indigenous American culture and beliefs, this new information makes the case of an epic salvific plan thousands of years in the making. If proven true, the implication is more than far-reaching—it changes history! Come out and celebrate Mary's month and Cinco de Mayo weekend by attending this exciting and ground-breaking three-night lecture series. Mark your calendars for the evenings of May 5, 6, and 7, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., in our Parish Hall. For more information, contact Monique at 991-0035 OR St. Therese Church at 282-2744.

MEN'S WEEKEND RETREAT AT EL CARMELO

The rate for the weekend retreat is $170 (shared room) or $198 (single room) which includes a private bath, meals, and peace and tranquility. The retreat also includes the Sacraments, Conferences, private consultations, etc. A non-refundable $50 deposit (check or money order made out to El Carmelo) is required to reserve your room. ## BIBLE STUDY EVERY WEDNESDAY NIGHT!

All are invited to join us for our current Bible Study, featuring the video series, "JAMES: PEARLS FOR WISE LIVING," an 11-part study with author Jeff Cavins—held every Wednesday through June 1, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., in the Parish Meeting Room. There is a $20 fee per person, which includes a workbook.

Like the book of Proverbs, James is a book of wisdom, a collection of teachings on issues faced by ordinary Christians in everyday life. This study offers "pearls for wise living" by applying the wisdom of James to the present day. For anyone who has struggled to live a truly Christian life, James offers a wealth of practical solutions for handling and even sanctifying everyday circumstances. Through this study, you will find an anchor to hold you steady through the storms of life; learn how just a few small words can change your entire life; see how God's wisdom helps us face suffering; learn the secret to finding joy in the midst of trials; and find value in suffering. For any questions, please contact Debbie Robles at 679-6370 OR debrobles@me.com.

Saint Therese Carmelite School

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION: Can you imagine a world such as the one in today's Scripture readings? Communities of believers everywhere would support and encourage one another and be identified as Christians by the way they loved each other. "Behold, I make all things new," we hear the Son of God say in the second reading from the book of Revelation (21:5). Is this world of John's vision only imaginary? Are these faithful followers for whom Jesus prayed only a Savior's dream? Today they are presented as a worthy goal. How much closer can we come to this vision of a true Christian community in our lives today?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION: The French Revolution swept the Church in France away, stripping the nation of every vestige of the Faith, using the churches for pagan romps and causing the Faithful to go underground. What emerged from the chaos was the Napoleonic Code of 1792 governing Church life and marriage law in France, French Canada, and elsewhere. The code made civil marriage mandatory for all citizens. After being forced to have a civil marriage, usually accompanied by a speech about the duties of the citizen and the rearing of children, the wedding liturgy could take place, featuring consent, the exchange of rings, and the nuptial blessing. Sadly, today only a minority of French citizens celebrate even the civil rite, and of those who do, only a fraction continue on to the church. For those who do celebrate the liturgy of marriage, however, there is near certainty that the spouses are active worshippers who will later present their children for baptism.

LOW-GLUTEN COMMUNION HOSTS

If you are gluten-intolerant and it is necessary for you to receive a low-gluten host, we now have a special ciborium which is specifically made to hold the low-gluten hosts. Only the celebrating priest will have this available. To receive a low-gluten host, please follow these steps:

1. Fifteen minutes prior to the start of Mass, go into the sacristy (through the side near the Adoration Chapel) and inform either the sacristan or the priest that you need to receive a low-gluten host.
2. The Sacristan will then give you a lanyard to wear around your neck which will identify you when you come forward to the priest for Holy Communion.
3. After Mass, please return the lanyard to the sacristy.

RITE OF CONFIRMATION

Bishop O'Connell will be the celebrant at the 5:00 p.m. Mass at St. Therese on Sunday, May 22, in order to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation upon the RCIA adults and the youth of our community, which includes St. Therese Parish, St. Monica Academy, and our home-schoolers. If you wish to join our Confirmation and have not contacted Ruben at the Parish, please do so as soon as possible. We need a copy of each candidate's Baptism certificate and their sponsor's name. There will be a mandatory practice in the church for the candidates and their sponsors on Thursday, May 19, from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. Questions? Be one with Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration

"My soul, if you wish to penetrate the depths of this Mystery, your gaze must be illumined by Love! You need to see and understand! Contemplate the Last Supper: see Jesus Who knows that He will soon be separated from the body of His humanity, and yet wishing to be united to us forever; contemplate the Love by which He institutes this Sacrament which permits Him to be corporeally and forever united to mankind. O Inextinguishable Love! O Love of Christ! O Love of the human race! What a true Furnace of Love! O Jesus, You already saw the death which awaited You; the sorrows and atrocious tortures of the Passion were already breaking Your Heart, and yet You offered Yourself to Your executioners, and permitted them, by means of this Sacrament, to possess You forever as an Eternal Gift, O You, Whose delights are to be with the children of men! "O my soul, how can you refrain from plunging yourself ever deeper and deeper into the love of Christ, who did not forget you in life or in death, but who willed to give Himself wholly to you, and to unite you to Himself forever?" - St. Angela Foligno

To sign up as a committed adorer, please contact Ruben Beltran at 284-0020 (235) or rubenconfirmatio@yahoo.com.

LOVE one another, As i have LOVED you.
