There was a little good news that came out yesterday afternoon that the comptroller was releasing the 4th categorical payment from last school year, so most schools should be caught up now except for the first payments for FY2018 that were vouchered at the end of September.

http://illinoiscomptroller.gov/comptroller/assets/File/news\_releases/10\_23\_2017%20Comptroller%20Sends%20Final%20FY%202017%20Categorical%20Payment%20to%20Illinois%20Schools%20A0%20\(1\).pdf.pdf)

The backlog of bills is still close to $16B, so it’s suggested to still keep planning as if payments are going to be delayed, and hope they show up sooner rather than later. GSA remains a priority payments and continues to be paid on time.

ISBE is still working on the Tier funding calculations for the new evidenced based model. No idea as to when that will be completed.
