- 1 The legal basis for education in Tennessee is expressed in the state Constitution and state statutes, as 2 interpreted by the courts. Boards are instruments of the state, and members of the Board are state
3 officers representing local citizens and the state in the management of the public schools.¹
- 4 The governing body shall be the Board of Education, serving residents within the boundaries of the 5 school system and non-residents under conditions specified by state law and the Board.²
- 6 All powers of the Board lie in its action as a group; therefore, individual board members exercise their 7 authority over school system affairs only as they vote to take action at an official meeting of the Board.
- 8 In other instances, an individual board member, including the chairman, shall have power only when 9 specified by state law or when the Board, by vote, has delegated authority to him/her.
