1 Annually, the director of schools shall be responsible for conducting a needs assessment to determine the
2 focus of extended contract activities. The assessment shall be conducted by an extended contract
3 committee, which shall advise on or certify to the need for specific programs served through extended
4 contracts. The committees shall consist of teachers and administrators.

5
6 Extended contract opportunities shall be available to all educators.

7
8 The director of schools shall be responsible for devising a plan for Board approval consistent with 9 the needs assessment. The plan shall include as a minimum:

- 10
11 1. A description of each program and a discussion of the benefits of the program as required by state law;¹
12 2. Time frames within which the program(s) will be operated;
13 3. The number of students who will benefit from the program;
14 4. A list of additional duties which may be assigned to educators;
15 5. The number and special qualifications of employees desired for each program; and 16 6. Local costs to be involved in the program.
