Personnel shall be assigned to schools and departments in an appropriate and equitable manner subject to State and Federal law and guidelines. Consideration shall include; qualifications of the person being assigned or reassigned, professional and personal characteristics required by each position, recommendations of administrators, preferences of the employee and comparability among schools.

Reassignments within a school or administrative unit may be made at the discretion of the school principal or administrator with the exception of transfers to or from specialized assignments, such as Title I or special education. The Superintendent shall approve transfers from one school or administrative unit to another.
