1 Before school authorities administer disciplinary measures, reasonable inquiry shall be made to 2 determine the truth of what happened.¹ The nature of this inquiry will vary in degree with the 3 seriousness of the offense and the consequence attached thereto.

4 For minor offenses where corrective measures are taken by the classroom teacher, no formal procedure
 5 is required. An inquiry into the incident to ensure that the offender is accurately identified, that he 6 understands the nature of the offense, and that he/she knew the consequences of the offense for which 7 he is accused.

8 In case of severe offenses where there is a possibility of suspension, the student shall be advised of the 9 nature of his/her misconduct, questioned about it, and allowed to give an explanation.²

10 If the principal determines that the offense is of such nature that the student’s continued presence 11 would be detrimental to the school or persons within the school, he/she shall refer the case to the 12 disciplinary hearing authority.³
