

COUNTY PERSONNEL ASSOCIATION RELATIONS

The Tyler County Board of Education recognizes that teaching is a profession and that the best interests of the profession and of public education are advanced by local, state, and national associations of teachers.

The Tyler County Board of Education encourages professional as well as support personnel, to gain the personal and professional benefits available from membership in local, state, and national professional organizations.

The Tyler County Board of Education recognizes the Tyler County Education Association, affiliated with the West Virginia Education Association and the National Education Association, as the organization through which the teachers and other members may represent and promote their collective educational program. Support Staff may be represented by the Tyler County School Service Personnel Association and the West Virginia School Service Personnel Association.

The Tyler County Board of Education will give due consideration to all proposals and presentation made by the Tyler County Education Association and the Tyler County School Service Personnel Association.

When these organizations wish to make a proposal or presentation to the Board of Education, a copy of the proposal or presentation should be presented to the superintendent in advance.
