

Tutor.com for Military Families is the Department of Defense's online, on-demand tutoring and homework help service, offering students a connection to a live tutor for individualized one-to-one academic assistance in over 20 subjects in math, science, social studies and English from kindergarten to 12th grade and introductory college level.

NEW! The program is free for eligible military families, including ALL Active Duty families, National Guard families and Reserve families, regardless of deployment status! Previously, the program was available solely for Guard and Reserve families in a deployed status. You can see a demonstration of how the Tutor.com for Military Families service works by going to www.tutor.com/military and clicking the "Watch a Video" link. Then, connect in just a few minutes with an expert tutor for help with any academic question, from any computer with Internet access, anywhere in the world, 24/7.
