THE STORY

Sam, Sara, Sharon, Sally and Susie had dogs that loved to catch frisbees. The dogs were named Fido, Rover, Duke, Spot and Rex. They were all different breeds; they were a terrier, a spaniel, a beagle, a collie and a poodle. And they all had different colored frisbees that they liked to catch. The frisbees were red, yellow, blue, pink and green. In a best out of 25 frisbee-throwing contest, the dogs all made a different number of catches. They made 20 catches, 18 catches, 15 catches, 13 catches and 12 catches. Based on the clues, match the owners with their dogs, their breeds, their favorite colored frisbees and the number of successful catches.

THE CLUES

1. The terrier loved to catch a blue frisbee.
2. The beagle that did not belong to Sara or Sharon caught the yellow frisbee 20 times.
3. The spaniel caught the red frisbee 18 times.
4. Sally and Susie did not own either a collie or a beagle.
5. Spot the terrier, who did not belong to either Sara or Susie, made the fewest catches.
6. Fido and Rover did not belong to either Sally or Susie.
7. The poodle did not belong to either Sara or Susie.
8. Rex made the most catches, and Spot made the fewest catches.
9. Sharon's Rover, who was not a terrier, did not catch the pink frisbee 15 times.

Hamburgers Your Way

Pat, Pete, Hiram, Horace and Harriet, whose last names were Doe, Dole, Dolan, Dobson and Doherty went to a sandwich shop. They all ordered hamburgers but wanted them cooked differently. They wanted them raw, rare, medium rare, medium well and burnt. They all wanted a different topping; they wanted mustard, ketchup, pickles, onions and tomatoes. They also all ordered a different type of cheese; they ordered Swiss, cheddar, American, bleu and Limburger. Based on the clues, match first and last names with how they wanted their burgers cooked, and what kind of topping and cheese they wanted.

THE CLUES

1. The number of letters in the first and last names is never the same.
2. Dolan liked burnt burgers with Swiss cheese.
3. Dobson liked onions and Limburger cheese on his hamburger.
4. The person who liked bleu cheese wanted his burger cooked medium well.
5. Hiram had more letters in his last name than Pat or Pete, but not more than Horace.
