HOW SCHOOLS AND CLASSROOMS WILL BE CLEANED

Date: August 4, 2020

Overview: During the COVID-19 Pandemic, all Wolcott Public Schools will have greatly increased cleaning protocols to keep the environment as safe as possible.

District-wide Information for All Schools:

- Each school and classroom will be thoroughly sanitized each evening.
- During the school day, custodians will constantly circulate sanitizing frequently touched surfaces and lavatories with CDC-approved cleaners.
- All classrooms and offices will have CDC-approved cleaning solution and paper towels available for use by students and staff members.
- Mechanical air circulation will be increased to the greatest extent available in each school.
- Filters on air handler units in each school will be upgraded as per CDC-recommendations.
- Custodians' work shifts will be adjusted and overtime will be added as necessary to ensure sufficient sanitizing.

Specific Information for Tyrrell School:

- All eating surfaces in the cafe will be cleaned between each lunch wave.
- Bathrooms and other communal areas will be sanitized periodically throughout each school day.
- Student access to hand sanitizer will be available in each classroom throughout each school day.
